THE MINISTER FROM COLOMBIA to the United States authorizes us to deny the statement in a Sunday newspaper that there is an insurrection in that country.

Of course no other paper in the country but the Richmond Enquirer could say:

"Conservatism is the opposite of Radicalism; the one means safety for the Commonwealth; the other, destruction. Conservatism is the adventures in place of the patriot, and the rest and revel of ignorance amidst the ruins of independence."

The conservatism of Virginia and of that section of the South represented by journals like the Enquirer means double-disillusion, dyed in the wool hatred of free schools and popular education. Southern Conservatives have been fighting upon that platform for forty years, setting their faces steadily against every effort to disenfranchise and educate the colored race, and the "poor whites" for that matter.

THE FUTURE OF THE DEMOCRACY.

It will be recalled by our readers that the Republicans in the Senate, in the council to call attention to the visit of Gen. Edward Hendricks to this city five or six weeks ago, and to disclose its real purpose, which was to endeavor to effect a new departure of the Democratic party. The statement was denied at the time by some of the Democratic party, and it is believed by others, at we presume, the instigation of Mr. Hendricks himself. But since then circumstances have occurred which prove the correctness of our statement that the Indiana Governor's visit was not merely a visit to the Capital, but to consult with the other Democratic leaders upon the advisability of sinking the Democratic name, and in future sailing under the new flag of Liberty I Republican.

The press of the country has pretty freely discussed the whole subject during the last month, with all but unanimous opinion on the part of the Democratic organs against the little scheme of Mr. Hendricks. This gentleman is in many respects to his own credit, who, in an effort to prevent a civil war, went into the camp of the Radicals. But, as we have seen, they seem to have done nothing. They sat silent in their caves and numbered reputations by the thousand and the ten thousand from that impregnable position. It was "an enormous advantage." In every portion of the country they retained a corps of correspondents as emissaries to themselves, who did their work as neatly as "Boggs' Charley" and "Rechonine."

These journalistic Modocs, three half a dozen Captain Jacks of Liberalism, were equally well "trained to eminence" in advancing what they claimed, and, using it with more or less effect. The "young men specially trained by Mr. Greely" becomes every day more and more hardened. Dasa and Halstead, instead of showing any signs of repentance, have become almost as bad as their illustrious brother and prototype in the law beds. Halstead's case is exceedingly bad. Only a few days ago he unashamedly before a committee of the Ohio Legislature, had deliberately slandered and maligned Senator for the purpose of covering them to take a certain course. What is the difference between Halstead and Captain Jack?

The Modoc party has been a little too much for him. The Springfield Republican tells us in its issue of April 12, that Mr. Hendricks found Judge Thurman pronouncing unimpassioned, unfeeling, unkindly, unimpressive, and, went away with a frown on his face.

The only comfort to the old Radical is that he is now in the minority.

They have shown an utter insensibility to every evangelical effort made in their behalf.

Only a few months ago a plato body of men in this city offered up prayers in their behalf, but we have seen no improvement. Why not treat them as they propose to treat Captain Jack?

THE TEMPERANCE QUESTION IN ILLINOIS.

The present temperance law of Illinois, though designed for the protection of helpless citizens from a soulless traffic in intoxicating liquors, is found to be the strongest fortification of the kingdom of sloths. They stand behind the scenes, and dominate their realms in the face of the drunkard's wife, and children to contest those cities, whose greatest exertions are put forth for the suppression of this vice. The courts, by granting without discretion these licenses, sustain the liquor dealers in their defiant conduct. According to the statements contained in a circular recently issued by the temperance bureau of Chicago, "the most depraved man in the community, by the exercise of a little cunning and astuteness, can obtain a license to sell beer, wine, and whisky, and obtain a large sum of money in return for it." Captain Jack steals a scalp and Halstead has a reputation. And so do the other Liberal Republican and independent journalists.

All these gentlemen are now denouncing the peace policy of the Administration. They argue that the evangelical arguments that have been brought to bear upon the Indians have failed to persuade them to lead better lives; to come under the humanizing influence of the church and the school-house. They claim for extermination. We have no objection, but why not apply the same to the Indians? That is the lesson of history.
